Chapter 121: The Castle Guardians of the Divine Triad

To fortify their strongholds in the Absolute Realm Universe, each member of the Divine Triad—Sung Jin-Woo, Sung Su-Ho, and Ashborn—created a set of elite guardians for their castles: Absolute Castle, Umbra Citadel, and Eternis Draconis. These guardians, known as the Castle Guardians, were crafted with immense power and unwavering loyalty, ensuring the safety of the Divine Triad’s bastions.

The Role of the Castle Guardians

Each castle was assigned eight Castle Guardians, split between external and internal defense:

Four External Guardians: Stationed outside the castle, tasked with repelling any approaching threats. These beings patrolled the surrounding areas and monitored the skies, ready to intercept intruders long before they reached the castle walls.

Four Internal Guardians: Positioned within the castle, these protectors ensured the sanctity of the Divine Triad's chambers and the critical areas of the castle. They acted as the final line of defense, allowing no unauthorized presence within their domains.

The Characteristics of the Castle Guardians

1. Ashborn's Castle Guardians (Absolute Castle)

Appearance: Angelic beings with six silver wings, clad in luminous white armor etched with golden runes.

Abilities:

Wielders of celestial swords imbued with Ashborn’s light energy.

Masters of divine barriers, capable of creating impenetrable shields.

Manipulators of primordial light to obliterate darkness and chaos.

Disposition: Stern, unwavering, and deeply devoted to the principles of balance and order.

2. Sung Jin-Woo's Castle Guardians (Umbra Citadel)

Appearance: Shadowy beings with two immense black wings, adorned in dark, reflective armor that seemed to absorb light.

Abilities:

Wielders of shadow lances capable of piercing through any form of defense.

Experts in stealth and assassination, able to disappear into shadows.

Commanders of smaller shadow creatures that act as their scouts and extensions.

Disposition: Silent, calculated, and relentless in their pursuit of threats.

3. Sung Su-Ho's Castle Guardians (Eternis Draconis)

Appearance: Draconic beings with massive scaled wings, their bodies covered in obsidian and crimson armor.

Abilities:

Wielders of fiery halberds capable of unleashing waves of dragon fire.

Commanders of the draconic winds, creating storms to deter enemies.

Resistant to both magical and physical attacks due to their dragonic heritage.

Disposition: Fierce, aggressive, and unwaveringly loyal to Sung Su-Ho.

Stationing and Duties

1. External Guardians

Positioned at the four cardinal points around each castle, ensuring 360-degree surveillance.

Constantly patrolled their assigned areas, detecting any anomalies or potential threats.

Served as the first responders during an attack, engaging enemies before they could approach the castle walls.

2. Internal Guardians

Stationed at key locations within the castles, such as the throne rooms, treasuries, and strategic chambers.

Acted as sentinels, ensuring that no unauthorized entities entered the sacred spaces.

Coordinated with external guardians during attacks to form a seamless defense.

Coordination Among Guardians

The Castle Guardians were not isolated in their duties. Each group of eight was bound by a unique telepathic link, allowing them to share information and act in perfect harmony. In times of crisis, they could summon reinforcements from nearby troops or deploy specialized techniques to counter powerful adversaries.

Significance of the Castle Guardians

The creation of the Castle Guardians underscored the Divine Triad's commitment to the security and sanctity of their realms. These elite protectors were more than just soldiers—they were symbols of the Triad's power and the unyielding defense of their dominion.

With their presence, the Absolute Castle, Umbra Citadel, and Eternis Draconis became impregnable fortresses, ensuring that the Divine Triad's legacy would remain untouchable, even in the face of multiversal threats.
